

Lithuanian Group Analytic Society

Vilnius University

International Summer Conference of Group Analysis BOOK IN GROUP ANALYSIS

July 3-5, 2015

Lithuania

Lithuanian Group Analytic Society and Vilnius University invite practitioners, teachers and students of group analysis and group psychotherapy to the traditional 5th International Summer Conference of Group Analysis in Lithuania.

Group Analysis being a combination of art and science faces the challenge to be shared and taught, manualized and transmitted. What books should be read to become an excellent artist of group conducting, what books can reveal conceptualized, rational approach and also intuition, spontaneity and creativity?

What difficulties and challenges, excitements and pleasures are encountered by persons who write books and share their experience and knowledge? And on the other hand, what possibilities and new spaces, surprises and questions discover the ones, who read books, learn and test the information in practice?

Finally, our patients gain information and bring the vision of the therapy also from books what we do with that? What books become an issue and theme in the group, what kind of written word carries a meaning and is significant?

*Brothers and sisters, take it and read
And while reading, think it over...*

*In 1547 Mazvydas compiled and published the first printed Lithuanian book
'The Simple Words of Catechism', that was the beginning of literature and printing in Lithuanian to educate people and spread culture...*

We invite professionals, clinicians and researchers, working with the groups to discuss the issue of the written word and Book in Group Analysis. Proposals for the plenary lectures, optional workshops, and also proposals to conduct small discussion groups and the large experiential group can be submitted until 15th of December, 2014.

E-mail for abstract submissions: eglepauziene@gmail.com

Registration fee will be announced.

E-mail for more information: dubingiai2015@gmail.com

The Conference will take place in the beautiful countryside recreational facility near to Vilnius. All details will be announced with the second invitation. On Saturday night we will have a party. You can bring accompanying persons with you to share experience and Lithuanian hospitality.

Chair of the Scientific Committee Eugenijus Laurinaitis

Chair of the Organizing Committee Egle Pauziene

Language of the Conference is English.

More about Lithuanian GAS: www.lgad.lt